

A Pebble Hill Credo

We live a life by love transformed by spirit empowered by creative imagination guided in peace with all.

We, of Pebble Hill Interfaith Community are dedicated to living mindfully as a family in the spirit of love, compassion, unity, freedom, honesty, integrity, and service.

We see ourselves as ministers of peace and spiritual growth, safeguarding the earth and all of creation. Our primary purpose is to honor diversity and to provide a safe place for personal growth and spiritual actualization. We mutually support and respect the dignity of each person's journey towards manifesting their highest potential and we awaken to the spirit within each of us which acknowledges that we are all one.

Since our founding in 1968, our emphasis has been on creating and empowering new visions; offering new forms of celebration and daring to join the light of old and new traditions. At Pebble Hill, we are exploring what it means to be a living organism, a family of families, a community of co-creators, who embrace all the world's spiritual traditions.

We are committed to community building within a caring atmosphere of shared responsibility. A broad spectrum of ideas, beliefs, and lifestyles are welcomed at Pebble Hill. We believe that each person is a unique expression of God and has a special gift to offer towards the building of our liberating and celebrating community.

We invite you to join us and share your light with us as we explore the positive, expanding energy of Pebble Hill and travel together on this journey of life, love, spirit, creativity, peace, and joy.

You are welcome here.
