

Would you enjoy a week with 50+ like-minded folk, sharing knowledge, relaxing by a mountain lake near the headwaters of the Delaware?

Highlights from last year: Healing in our saltwater pool while Reiki & energy healers charged the water. Walking the beach labyrinth. We found out the real story behind the 2012 Mayan predictions from a Mayan scholar. Created poetry with a Philly Fringe performer and poet. Hand drummed with one of the area's leading teachers. Amazing group music classes and much more.

How about yoga, waterskiing, kayaking, a leisurely cocktail hour on the porch? Evenings join the dancing, karaoke, fun and games at the Cantina bar. Or maybe a star gazing pool swim?

- Most vacations like this offer a scenic environment and workshops, but this one also has a waterfront with skiing, tubing, swimming and a pool.
- Most have yoga, but this one also has a climbing wall, cloud swing & crafts.
- Most have interesting people, but this one has fun loving, accepting folk of all ages and beliefs.
- Most have a few years experience, but this one has been successful for 39 years.
